"A True Jock of All Trades"™

Learning to play more than 6 instruments before he was 12 years old; musically B-SIDE has done everything from DJ-ing to Music Production, to Sound Engineering, A&R + Managing, Product Branding & Development, Radio Broadcasting, Marketing, Writing, Teaching, Philanthropy, Photography, & even Choreography!

With production credits that range from George Clinton, to the D.O.C. & Erotic D, plus underground (white label) remixes of Erykah Badu, Limp Bizkit, Daddy Yankee vs. UB40, Kanye West vs. M.A.N.D.Y, Prince and others... He's considered "The Only DJ Not Afraid To Mix & Remix It ALL".

Over the years B-SIDE has been known to play & produce cutting edge House & Electro, Breaks, Hip-Hop, Latin, D&B/Dubstep and Disco. This combined with his skills as a Turntablist places him in a class all by himself. A man too busy for time, B-SIDE promotes several events, tours internationally, & consults for audio manufacturers. In addition to running his own company, he has just returned to FL and into the studio after a long hiatus and relocation. Expect to see and hear more about this fascinating individual in the near future.
